“Disclosure on the Use of Artificial Intelligence Tools

Pursuant to Article 13 of Law No. 132 of 23 September 2025 (“Provisions on Intellectual Professions”), the Client acknowledges having been informed that, in the course of performing the Engagement, ECOVIS STLex may, where deemed appropriate, make use of Artificial Intelligence (“AI”) systems for activities of an instrumental and supportive nature to the professional services rendered, including – by way of example and without limitation – organisational and document management, legal and regulatory research, preliminary text analysis, and the preparation of drafts or summaries.

The use of such tools shall be carried out in full compliance with Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (GDPR), applicable professional conduct rules, and all confidentiality and personal data protection requirements.

In any event, ECOVIS STLex shall remain fully responsible for the supervision, review, and validation of any outputs generated by AI systems, which shall be subject to critical assessment prior to any use within the professional services provided.

By signing the Engagement, the Client confirms that it has received this disclosure and understands its content.”
